Single-Source Breakdown Assistance

ExcelsatorSM On Call means over-the-road drivers never travel alone. That's because you're always only a toll-free phone call away from experienced help in resolving breakdown issues quickly.

The Excelsator call center is staffed with Freightliner personnel who are experts at finding the nearest, most qualified service providers. We can expedite parts delivery and coordinate services so you don't have to. Most importantly, Freightliner personnel will keep you informed throughout the process and send you a final recap of breakdown services for your records.

No membership fee is required to enjoy the benefits of Excelsator On Call. Convenient credit card payment makes this the quick breakdown assistance program that provides permanent peace of mind.
